H. K. HAMMER & MOSSER,
HAMMER & MOSSER, Proprietors,
DAKOTAH, ILLINOIS.Entered at Post Office, Decatur, Illinois, as second class mail matter.

The arrivals of immigrants at the port of New York for August amounted to 26,311, against 28,115 for the same month last year, a decrease of 1,804. Thus far this year the arrivals have numbered 343,518, against 284,946 for the same period last year, an increase of 58,572.

The Courier-Journal declares that the health of the Hon. Tom Hendricks, of Indiana, is very poor, and that it is with difficulty he keeps out of the grave. The Indianapolis Sentinel denies the statement as false, and asserts that the health of Mr. Hendricks is very good—much better than that for years—much better than that of Mr. Tilden.

An exchange says: "Germany has a temperance revival such as was never known in that country before. It is led by Count Molko, and many eminent men are among its foremost workers. The German reformers have not yet attained the standard of total abstinence, but are preaching moderation, which is more of a reform for that country than many people may suppose. The attention of the German Government was not long since called to the alarming prevalence of intemperance."

The Baptist Association. The Springfield Baptist Association, which is to be held in the Baptist church, in this city, on Sept. 7th, 8th and 9th, is composed of the ministers and lay delegates from 25 churches, nearly all of which will be represented. SPECIAL SERVICES.

There will be several services at Shipp's Chapel next Sabbath. The pastor will preach in the morning. Before the service the rite of baptism will be administered. Parents who desire to have their children baptized, and all probationers who have not been baptized nor received, are urged to be present. After the sermon probationers will be received. One of the delegates of the Baptist Ministerial Association, now in session in the city, will preach in this evening.

HORSE FAIR.

D. M. Adams, of Friends Creek, who is exhibiting a herd of Jersey cattle in the county fair, had a valuable horse stolen from his place yesterday by a boy 14 years old from Five Points, N. Y., who was adopted by Mr. Adams, and was considered one of the family. The horse is a sorrel, with white stripe in the face and white hind feet. The boy is of German extraction, but speaks fair English. Mr. Adams will pay a liberal reward for the return of the horse.

MILITARY AND DRESS MAKING.

After Monday, Sept. 10th, Miss S. C. Watson will occupy Mrs. K. Einstein's stand, on Main street, where she will enlarge her stock of Millinery and keep a full line of Ladies' Dressing Goods, Infants' Bonnets and Cloaks, and all the latest novelties for the ladies in general. The back rooms will be fitted up nicely for Dress-making. Mrs. Henderson, of Mattoon, will take charge of that department. Mrs. Henderson has had many years of experience, and has made her business a study, and cutting and fitting a specialty. She is in every respect a first-class dress-maker. The ladies of Decatur and vicinity are invited to call and examine her work and styles.

WEDDING BELLS.

MARRIAGE OF MR. FRANK P. ROACH AND MISS CORA B. KING.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. King, on North Water street, Miss Cora B. King was united in marriage to Mr. Frank P. Roach, the youngest member of the well-known dry goods firm of Roach, McKeynolia & Co. The ceremony which united the two young people was performed at 8:30 o'clock, by Rev. W. H. McGregor, of Stapp's Chapel. The attendants were Miss Alice Priest and Frank Curtis. The bride and bridegroom were attired in dresses of pure white, with natural flowers. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers, evergreens and mosses. At the conclusion of the ceremony the happy couple received the hearty congratulations of the many guests in attendance, composed mainly of the relatives and intimate friends of the young people, and at 9:30 a splendid wedding feast was served. The bride and groom left on the 10:10 train for Cincinnati and Louisville, and will probably go to Chicago and Detroit before returning home.

The presents were numerous and valuable, but a list of them will not be furnished for publication.

Among the guests from a distance were Mrs. A. C. King and wife, Leroy, Ill.; Mrs. F. W. King and son, Leroy; Mrs. J. W. Coleman and daughter, Monticello; Miss B. Stebbins and wife, Detroit; Miss Mollie Abbott, of New Orleans; Harry Lull, Lookout; Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Booth, of Mt. Zion; Mrs. F. Donaldson and son, of Gero; Mrs. Minnie Nunne and Marin Smith, of Mt. Zion.

Regrets were received from Miss Sophia Hallock, Paris, Ky.; Rev. J. M. Gill and F. H. Bristow and family, Elkhorn, Ky.; W. H. Bowch, Clarksville, Tenn., and other friends and relatives.

The Roachites extend their hearty congratulations to the happy couple.

"A secret of a life."

A fair audience witnessed the presentation of the above drama at the opera house last night by the Lambert & Richardson company. The drama was well received and was rendered in a manner deserving of better patronage. The leading characters all sustained their well-earned reputation. Harry Robinson as "Fector Falton," noted with his usual success, and frequently excited the laughter of his audience. Miss Julia Blake as "Adrienne DeBoupre," a wealthy orphan, gave an excellent rendition of her part. The performance concluded with "Sketches in India," a farce in which Harry Robinson as "Tou Tou," kept the house in uproar. As an entertainment the evening's work was decidedly enjoyable, and the Lambert & Richardson company will undoubtedly be greeted by good houses in all of its future efforts in this city. To-night the company will present Mrs. Langtry's version of "The Honey-moon," in which Miss Julia Blake will appear as "Juliana," and Harry Robinson as "Jacques," the mock duke.

"A bunch of Keys."

The Sparks Company will produce on Monday night "A Bunch of Keys," a satire on hotel and hotel life, which has had an extensive run in all the large Eastern cities. The play was written by Mr. O. H. Hoy, a clever Boston journalist, who apologetic in a humorous vein for calling his farcical satire a comedy. The Philadelphia Press says of the play and the author:

Mr. O. H. Hoy is to be congratulated upon having inspired something in the compliance of a comedy can still, based on original ideas.

Originally in dramatic construction has come to be as rare as a white swan. Let me call "A Bunch of Keys," rather at the Arch ill last week by the "Sparks" Company, a white swan. All the crowds that laughed over it, will give Bharatam welcome to a flock of swans. It will add to the beauty of the "Sparks" company to about the same as last year. In many sections of Indiana, Illinois and Iowa the growth is backward. Estimates show a reduction of 10 per cent. as compared with last year, and a increase of 5 per cent. in Indiana, 10 in Illinois, 5 in Missouri, 5 in Kansas and 30 in Nebraska, and a decrease in every Southern state except Texas, which will be 10 to 15 per cent. over the production of last year.

TOOK A TUMBLE.

The Chicago Pork and Lard Market Victim of a Big Decline.

Heavy Rain in Texas Gladly Welcomed—Old Soldiers at the Bananas—Great Prospects and Statistic—A Chicago Lady's Grievance—News of the Day.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—"Armour has been singing more stuff," was the verdict yesterday. Pork to-day dropped 60¢ to 70¢ per barrel, lard 10¢ per hundred and short ribs about 40¢. The trading about the provision market was large and the feeling excited—almost panic. The few who doubted that Armour had become a seller were converts yesterday when the same brokers began offering meats by the 100,000-pound lots, and lard and pork in any sized packages to suit; while Armour's own employees stood by doing nothing at all. It is said that the market is now in a beauty contest, and that the few who doubted that Armour had become a seller were converts yesterday when the same brokers began offering meats by the 100,000-pound lots, and lard and pork in any sized packages to suit; while Armour's own employees stood by doing nothing at all.
